

UBC Staff Hot Lunch 10th Anniversary Survey Snapshot

Survey Period: September 20, 2023 – June 11, 2024
194 Responses

Most respondents heard about Hot Lunch through:

Colleagues (60%) UBC Today (25%)

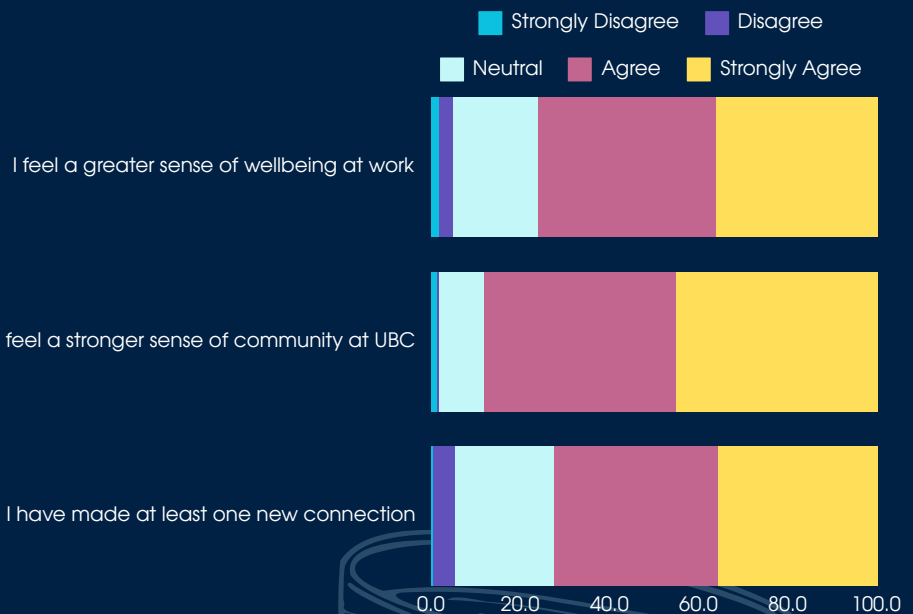

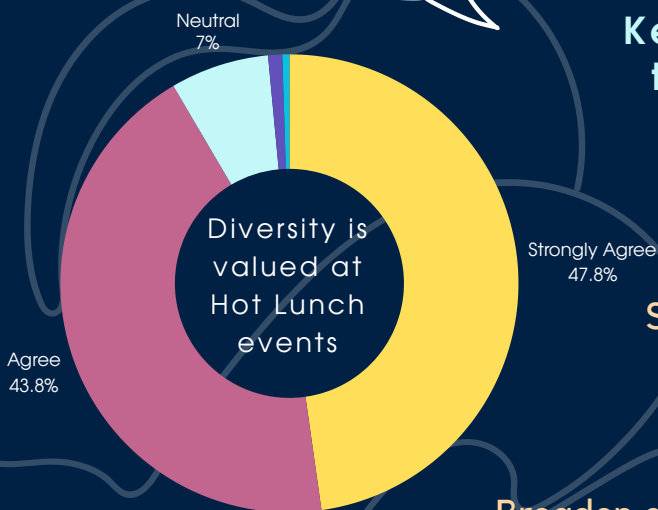

95%

“Very satisfied” (76%) or “Satisfied” (19%) with the Hot Lunch initiative

Staff appreciate having this space to connect with colleagues over lunch at a reasonable price with food from different cultures

“Hot Lunch feels like having a regular small neighborhood gathering - there is a sense of community there which is hard to come by in other areas of my work at UBC. I value it so much - please continue your efforts. We appreciate it so much!”

“Virtual environment really helped to tear down walls and silos between campuses.”

Key opportunities to improve the Hot Lunch experience:

Venue Capacity and Seating

- Larger venue with more spacious, quieter seating
- Increase/change event frequency

Staff Inclusivity and Accessibility

- We hear you - It's hard to get a ticket!
- Varied days, times, and lengths to accommodate different schedules
- More dietary options with clear labeling

Broaden and Facilitate Connections

- Facilitate easier networking and making new connections – e.g. ice breaker questions, arranged seating, varied format
- Invite a wider range of speakers – e.g. mid-level leaders, academic leaders
